Why Red Light Therapy ?

Red Light Therapy is a safe all natural process the encourages your body to naturally produce enzymes, elastin fibers, and collagen that support the skin's structure. Thus producing a younger smoother firmer feeling skin. Infrared Light Technology has been extensively researched and used by Nasa, Mayo Clinic, National Institutes of Health, US Military, and many more worldwide, It has been found to be effective at repairing damaged skin, treating depression, relieving pain, treating wounds, killing bacteria, adding in cancer recovery, and much more.

Initial Results (First 4 weeks)

Initially you'll notice fine lines start to diminish, your skin will have a much smoother feeling to it, pigmentation of the skin will start to even out, and any blemishes or acne will start diminishing.

Long Term Results (4-12 weeks)

Over time Improved oxygenation and detoxification of the skin is achieved as the vascular walls of the skin's small blood vessels are strengthened, followed by improved natural repair and creation of healthy skin. This will help restore and firm up tired looking skin, decrease fine lines, wrinkles, stretch marks, diminish freckles, age spots, eliminate acne, even out pigmentation, minimize the size of facial pores, improve the appearance of sun-weathered skin, and stimulate collagen synthesis. Overall improving the skin's underlying supportive structure and making you look and feel years younger !

Recommended Session Lengths

1-4 Weeks: 20 Minutes 3-5 Times a week.

4-12 Weeks: 20 Minutes 2-3 Times a week.

12+ Weeks: 1-2 Times a week.

Safety

Although Red Light Therapy lamps are made to go into a tanning bed they do not tan you or put out any harmful uv light. Eye protection is not necessary but because of the intensity we recommend at least wearing sun glasses or tanning goggles. The FDA has stated that red light has a non significant risk status and is completely safe for the eyes.

Frequently asked questions

Q: Do Red Light lamps tan ?

A: Red Light therapy is NOT A TANNING LAMP, Red Light therapy is a SKIN REJUVINATION SYSTEM !

Q: Can my current tanning bed be converted to Red Light ?
